The Italic Script for the Beginner

Italic script developed during the Renaissance in Italy and is an easy script to learn for beginners. It is popular for use with quotations, wedding invitations, art calligraphy and improving handwriting style.

Mark and Lee will guide you through the basic lower and upper case letters, numerals and punctuation Depending on your skill level, individual attention will steer you to the next level of pen manipulation and flourishing your letters.

Class projects will use this beautiful script to address envelopes and designing name tags.

MATERIALS

All materials can be purchased in class. Cost: Basic Pilot pen $18. Paper pad $10
If you own calligraphy supplies, bring them along.

INSTRUCTORS

Mark Lurz

Mark is a founding member and current President of the Calligraphic Arts Guild of Toronto. He has taught for the Guild and in the community for forty years instructing calligraphers at all levels.

Lee Thureson

Lee is a Graphic Designer, Production Manager and Copywriter and is familiar with both hand lettering and digital artwork.

CONTACTS:

For additional course information Mark is available at murklurz@sympatico.ca or 905 857 1579

Or

Ramona Matthews, Program Coordinator at programs@calligraphicartstoronto.ca

Registration and workshop policy information at www.calligraphicartstoronto.ca/learn